Free Resources for Accessible Documents

1. The Federal Government

The U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) provides information about document accessibility on the Section508.gov website. Create Accessible Documents has information for:

- Microsoft Word
- Microsoft PowerPoint
- Microsoft Excel
- Adobe Acrobat
- 2. Web Accessibility in Mind (WebAIM)

WebAIM provides some free information on their website:

- Microsoft Word: Creating Accessible Documents
- Microsoft Excel: Optimizing Spreadsheet Accessibility
- PowerPoint Accessibility
- PDF Accessibility
- Word and PowerPoint Accessibility Evaluation Checklist
- 3. Microsoft

Microsoft offers technical support for customers with disabilities through their Disability Answer Desk as well as training and information on their products and accessibility features.

4. Adobe

Adobe has information about how to create and verify PDF accessibility on their website.

5. Google

Google's Help Center provides accessibility information for Google Docs, Sheets, Slides, & Drawings.